Hudson's Bay Coat

Back in the 1220's, cowboys riding the Irall wore "blanket coats" to take the allog out of Northern winders. The coats, made fromwool blankets sold at Broton's Bay tribling posts, steed up to raw weather on the open range.

This Markboro coat is made from a fear-point flushoon's Bay blanket. It's 1909 wost and quill' direct for exits a armit. It has a sheepskin shearing collie and hattons of carred another hose.

$18500 plus two and Sabelis from any pack of best of Maribons

Come to where the flavor is. Come to Mariboro Country.

Marker Markers arkers a

Maribars Hudsen's Esy Cost

Light: 11 mg 10" 2 f mg norma... Engs & 100's: 16 mg 10" 11 mg norma sa. periopeans, FTE Report Mar 21.

Warring: The Surgeon General Has Determined That Cigarette Stocking is Dangerous to Your Health.

-